11.6.2 Notwithstanding clause 11.6.1, the Board is not required to call a general meeting requisitioned by the Voting Members under clause 11.5.2 if the Board determines, in its absolute discretion, that the general meeting was requisitioned by the Voting Members for an unlawful or improper purpose, or otherwise contemplates resolutions that are beyond the powers of the Voting Members.

11.6.3 For the avoidance of doubt, any resolutions proposed by the Voting Members that are determined to be unlawful, improper or beyond power under clause 11.6.2 may be omitted by the Board from the notice of general meeting but do not otherwise affect any of the other resolutions proposed by the Voting Members (if any).

13.2 Quorum

If there is no such person or that person is absent or unable or unwilling to act, the Directors involved must elect one of their number to be the alternative Chairman of the meeting.

14.5 Adjournment of general meeting

The Chairman of a general meeting can adjourn the meeting (and must do so if directed by a resolution of the Members at a general meeting) provided that:

- 14.5.1 no business is to be done at an adjourned meeting except business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place;

15.1 Member voting

Unless the law requires or this Constitution provides otherwise, all resolutions put to Members require approval by ordinary resolution.

15.2 Resolution by show of hands unless poll demanded

At a general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting will be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded (before or on the declaration of the results of the show of hands) by:

- 15.2.1 the Chairman of the meeting; or
- 15.2.2 at least three (3) Members present in person or by representative or proxy and entitled to vote on the resolution; or
- 15.2.3 a Member or Members present in person or representative or proxy with at least 5% of the votes that can be cast on the resolution.

15.3 Withdrawal of demand for poll

A demand for a poll can be withdrawn.

15.4 Passing a resolution

On a show of hands, a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting is conclusive evidence of the result.

15.5 Time for poll

If a poll is duly demanded, it must be taken in such manner, either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, as the Chairman of the meeting directs. However, a poll demanded on the election of the Chairman of the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

15.6 Equality of Votes

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to any vote the Chairman of the meeting may have in his or her capacity as a Voting Member and/or Board Director.

15.7 Result of poll

The result of a poll will be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

16. Voting entitlement

At a general meeting, on a show of hands or on a poll, every Voting Member and every Board Director who is not a Voting Member has one (1) vote.

16.2 Inability to vote

A Voting Member cannot vote at a general meeting unless all money then payable by the Voting Member to the SMSF Association (including Membership Fees) has been paid as at the date of the notice of the general meeting.

16.3 Objections to vote

16.3.1 An objection can be made to a voter's qualification only at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote of the voter whose qualification is objected to is given or tendered.

16.3.2 An objection so made will be referred to and determined by the Chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

16.3.3 A vote objected to, but not disallowed, is valid for all purposes.

17. Proxies

17.1 Entitlement to appoint a proxy

17.1.1 A Voting Member can appoint, by written instrument, the Chairman, Director, Chief Executive Officer, or any other person as the appointing Voting Member's proxy to vote on the appointing Voting Member's behalf at a general meeting.

17.1.2 For the proxy to be valid, it must comply with the requirements set out in clause 17.1.1 and clause 17.2. A proxy is invalid, and no proxy will be taken to be in effect, where these requirements are not complied with.

17.2 Form of proxy
